NARRATIVE:

Mark Ford has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 29. His convictions include attempted murder, battery by prisoner, felon in possession of a firearm, multiple cases of assault causing bodily injury to a family member, criminal trespassing, evading police, violation of protective order, brandishing a firearm replica, DUI, possession of marijuana and driving with a suspended license. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 9 year term for attempted murder. Ford was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on July 25, 2016. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2017 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Ford qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for felon in possession of a firearm is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
